

Please do not give in to any special interest other than that of the American public. I live a little better without the annoyance of calls from salesmen, and New Jersey's law is a godsend.